

Jason Ferreira, Sales/Marketing, jason@parkerhardscapes.com
Executive Profile

Jason Ferreira oversees outside sales for Parker Hardscapes including contractors, architects and engineers. He also assists with marketing for the company.

In his position, Ferreira assists architects with their project designs and what products will work best in the overall landscape design layout. Additionally, he assists contractors, from landscape/masonry contractors to homeowners, in providing bid information and pricing for their projects.

Ferreira brings more than 15 years of sales and marketing experience to Parker Hardscapes. Prior to joining Parker Hardscapes, Ferreira held sales management positions at Reno-based building and engineering firms. Active in the northern Nevada community, Ferreira supports disabled veterans groups and breast cancer research.

Ferreira studied architectural design at Cabrillo College in Northern California then focused on civil engineering courses at the University of Nevada, Reno.
